DESCRIPTION

Charlie Abbott is a 25 year old from Boston, MA, Living in Aomori, Japan who teaches high school English. "I made Goes to Math Class, over the course of about one year (from Fall 2015 - Fall 2016ish). As for influences, I'd say I was trying to go for the dirt of early Quasimoto mixed with the melody of Emerald Fantasy Tracks era Lone, but I'm having trouble describing it in terms of larger generic genre terms. I feel like it has a beat tape structure, and is definitely rooted in hip hop/dance music, but isn't really danceable or meant for the club. I'd probably describe it as headphone music?"
