

PACEWON & MR. GREEN

The Only Color That Matters Is Green

KEY SELLING POINTS

- The videos have gotten nearly 10 million views on youtube
- Mr. Green's show Live from the Streets is returning to Noisey/ VICE this fall
- The cover was done by the first modern graffiti artist "Cornbread" so the record is somewhat of a collectors item
- PaceWon is a former Eminem affiliate, at the time of originally releasing the project they were in a feud so Pace included an Eminem diss song on the album. Since then they have reconciled, Eminem shouted Pace out on the song "Fine Line" so the diss song has been removed for this vinyl edition.

DESCRIPTION

"It has been a while since I've heard an album this easy to listen to. The Only Color That Matters Is Green is really the PaceWon album we've been waiting on for close to a decade. It's fun, it's basic, it just is what it is. No worrying about if it's made for gangsters, hipsters, backpackers or whatever – this album's remarkable production and almost infallible focus takes two outsiders, and puts them in the epicenter of hip-hop's best releases..." -Hiphopdx
